EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Drawings

The following changes to the drawings have been approved by the examiner and agreed upon by applicant:

Figure 5 is objected to because it should be designated by a legend such as -- Prior Art-- because only that which is old is illustrated. See MPEP § 608.02(g). Corrected drawings in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The addition of the legend such as --Prior Art-- would overcome the objection and has been pre-approved by the Examiner. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. In order to avoid abandonment of the application, applicant must make these above agreed upon drawing changes.

Reasons for allowance

The instant invention is deemed to be directed to an unobvious improvement to windmills over U.S. Patent No. 4,164,382 which teaches a windmill, comprising: wind intake means having wind guide plates 84a-h which are radially located to guide wind in a predetermined direction, an upper plate 92,92' which is installed on upper ends of the wind guide plates 98a-h to prevent dispersion of the wind, a wind inlet which is defined between inner ends of two adjoining wind guide plates 98a-h, and a wind inlet opening and closing device 114,116,130 which is placed at the wind inlet; power generating means disposed in a power generating tunnel which is defined at a lower end of the wind intake means 112,112', to rotate rotors by the wind introduced into the windmill through the wind intake means and thereby generate electricity; and wind exhaust means having a wind outlet so that the wind used for generating electricity can be discharged to the outside through the wind outlet, and a wind outlet opening and closing device 114,116,130 which is placed at the wind outlet.

The improvement comprises wind inlet opening and closing device which is opened by the wind flowing through the wind inlet into the windmill and closed by the wind flowing through the wind inlet out of the windmill, a wind outlet means which is defined below the wind inlet, and the wind outlet opening and closing device which is opened by the wind flowing through the wind outlet out of the windmill and closed by the wind flowing through the wind outlet into the windmill.

Prior Art

Prior art made of record but not relied upon is considered pertinent to Applicant's disclosure and consist of four patents.

Martinez (4,415,814) is cited to show a windmill having guide plates, a power generating means, and wind inlet and outlet but fails to teach an opening and closing device opened and closed by the wind.

Payne (4,508,973) is cited to show a windmill having guide plates, a power generating means, and wind inlet and outlet but fails to teach an opening and closing device.

Gual et al. (5,020,967) is cited to show a windmill having guide plates, a power generating means, and wind inlet and outlet but fails to teach an opening and closing device.

McDavid (6,518,680) is cited to show a windmill having guide plates, a power generating means, and wind inlet and outlet but fails to teach an opening and closing device placed in the wind inlet defined by the guide plates.
